

ANTY DRUDGE

Miss Spic-a-span — "Hello, Anty Drudge! Come take a ride with me!"

Anty Drudge — "An automobile! How extravagant!"

Miss Spic-a-span — "No, I earned this with my painting. And I do all my own housework. This is wash-day, but I was through by 12 o'clock. That Fels-Naptha you told me of is wonderful. The hanging out is the hardest part of my washing."

If time is money, Fels-Naptha Soap will save you money every washday.

Fels-Naptha saves coal or other fuel because it cleanses clothes in cool or lukewarm water, with no need for a hot fire to boil your clothes.

It saves your clothes because there is no boiling to weaken them nor hard rubbing to wear holes in them.

It saves your health because it takes all the back-breaking, strength-taking work out of washday.

Are these things worth saving?

If you think so, get Fels-Naptha soap. It is according to directions on the red and green wrapper.

IN MEMORY

Mrs. Margaret Holley, who started this life May 8, '13, at the age of 75 years 5 mo. and 5 days. This she was said of Mrs. Holly, she was a good christian woman, a good mother and to know her was to love her. She had a kind word and smile for every one and she was a type of what all christians should be. She bore her sufferings with patience and prayed for the end. Everything was done that loving hands could do for the daughter who was ever ready to go to her mother's call. The writer heard her say that Ruby had nothing to regret for she had done everything that could be done and her only regret of dying was leaving Ruby, who she left in the Lord's care. Let's pray that Ruby will follow the foot steps of her mother, but God knows best, and let's say his will be done, but it is hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart. It is hard to say the words to be must forever part. Dearest mother, we will lay thee thy peaceful grave's embrace, but thy memory will be cherished till we see thy heavenly face. A. L. END.

AUNT SUE.

Two Killed At Williamson.

Conductor C. C. Chaffin and brakeman, Gus Martin were instantly killed in a railroad yards last night about 11:30 o'clock. It seems that they were standing on a track between two trains of cars, when an engine was suddenly backed in on the same track and suddenly driving the cars over them, caught the unfortunate brakeman and crushed them to death. — Williamson News.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

It is a boy. An assistant Prosecutor arrived. Born on Thursday May 23 to Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hardwick, a fine robust boy. Dan says it is the finest baby to be found. The near neighbors are already prophesying that he will make a lawyer because of his strong voice. — Wayne News.

The laeger inn, operated by J. B. Dodson, and a store in connection with the hotel, and also another hotel and store building, owned by A. T. Corner, and a vacant store building adjoining the latter, were all consumed by fire this morning. Some of the guests had a very narrow escape. Mr. Morris, of this city, just did escape and lost some of his clothing.

The Paint-creek strike bids fair to go down in history as having brought about the determination of more than one vexed question of constitutional law, as well as having brought a beginning to the end of the feudal regime of the mine guard in West Virginia. It has been a costly struggle, but human liberties have always to be gained and maintained at tremendous cost. — Morgantown Post-Chronicle.

Parkerburg, W. Va., May 30. — Frank Henthorn, 45 years old, was killed when sitting at the supper table to-night by his son, Earl Henthorn, 22 years old. The son then tried to kill himself.

When young Henthorn came home his father, mother and sister were seated at the supper table. An argument ensued between the father and son, and the latter picked up a shotgun and shot his father. The women ran from the house and young Henthorn shot himself in the forehead. He probably will die.

Charleston, W. Va., May 30. — The head of little Marietta Shaffer, the four-year-old daughter of William Shaffer, who resides 15 miles from here, was blown off by a load of shot fired from a gun in the hands of Charles Slaughter, a small cousin of the girl. The Slaughter boy is said to be mentally deficient.

Early this morning the Slaughter boy told the little girl to lie down on the floor, close her eyes and pretend that she was asleep. The little girl did as the boy requested. The boy placed the gun against her neck and pulled the trigger.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 31. — Orlando, W. Va., a town in the southern part of Lewis-co., was the scene of a cloudburst Friday. The property damage is said to be heavy, but up to a late hour tonight no loss of life had been reported.

A train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, running between Richwood and Clarksburg, was stopped by the flood waters. Passengers and crew were forced to flee to the mountain side to escape the rapidly rising water, which reached a height of four feet in the coaches of the train.

From Weston, W. Va., comes a report of heavy rains and considerable damage.

Roanville, fourteen miles south of Weston, is practically inundated.

Washington, May 31. — The consideration of plans for Senate probe into conditions in strike zone of West Virginia coal fields was begun today by Senate committee on education and labor. After four days of effort, advocates of investigation succeeded in getting committee together. It was expected that investigation would be begun by subcommittee which will visit strike district and take testimony of mine owners, strikers and militia officers at once.

Senators Swanson, Martin, Shields, Borah and Kenyon were appointed on the committee to investigate the coal fields. No plans were formulated to-day but committee meets again Monday.

The Bureau of Soils, in co-operation with the West Virginia Geological Survey, will soon begin a Soil Survey of the Boone-Logan-Mingo Area, West Virginia, covering approximately 1,360 square miles. The survey will be made for the purpose of determining the different types of soil in the area and what crops they are best adapted to. The survey will be finished in the fall, when the report will be prepared and published later, together with a soil map in colors, showing the locations and extent of the different types of soil, farm houses, churches, schools, railroads, public roads, and streams in the area.

The field work of the Soil Survey of Kanawha-co., will also be resumed this spring, and will be completed at an early date.

The Bureau of Soils has made Soil Surveys of Brooks, Cabell, Calhoun, Doddridge, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Lincoln, Marion, Marshall, Mason, Monongalia, Ohio, Pleasant, Preston, Putnam, Ritchie, Roane, Taylor, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Wetzol, Wirt, and Wood counties, West Virginia, and a partial survey of Jefferson county.

COUNTRY CHILD'S DAY NOW IS HERE

Parents and Teachers Prepare For Newer Life.

ERECT MODERN SCHOOLS.

Up to Date Building and Equipment Mean Added Interest to Both Teachers and Scholars in Educational Matters—A Model School Near Louisville With Domestic Science Room.

Wherever people are thinking definitely about the future they realize that the child is the greatest problem with which the state has to deal because it is the state's greatest asset. This is especially true in the rural districts, and both teachers and parents are getting ready for the newer life that promises to develop within the next twenty-five years or sooner.

Four miles out of Louisville on one of the main turnpikes, where for years the people had been thoroughly satisfied with a poor schoolhouse and a poorer playground, a new building has gone up. This building was made possible by the district levying a special fifteen cent tax for two years and securing the help of the county board of education. When the public began to understand what was taking place it rallied to the support of the new school. This was made very plain when the Southern Brick and Tile company, which had a large plant in the neighborhood, added an extra acre of ground to the acre already secured by the trustee for the district.

The moment one enters the beautiful brick building with its soft green roof that harmonizes with the surroundings it is evident that it is an up to date school with a modern school equipment, for a sanitary drinking fountain is the first thing that catches the eye. The building has two beautiful schoolrooms perfectly lighted and equipped with modern single desks. Two ample cloakrooms are immediately in front of the classrooms and open into the main hall, while at one end of the building there is a cozy rest room for teachers and pupils, with a light, pleasant little library. Both of the classrooms are arranged so that they may be turned into one huge room, while the teachers' platform can be joined and become a stage with the library and rest room as dressing rooms for the same. This simple device makes it possible to use the school for entertainments and as a perfect social center for the community.

Down in the big, airy basement is the modern heating plant, a gasoline engine and tank that supplies the water for the building. In this same basement, there are two big rooms, one of which is equipped with twelve work benches for the manual training class. The other room of the basement is equipped to handle a class of eight girls in domestic science.

It might seem in looking over this school, with its perfect equipment and its splendid grounds, its huge cistern and its deep well, to furnish perfect drinking water for the children, as if the cost would have been excessive. Yet the whole equipment, including gasoline engine, domestic science outfit, manual training benches and tools, cost only $5,750.

There is one final point that should be touched and touched upon definitely, and that is the effect of this building and equipment upon the two teachers. Last season when they realized that this dream was to come true they both went to a summer school, one taking a summer course in domestic science, the other in manual training.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

The court house at Campton was burned; incendiary; loss $7,000, insurance $6,000.

As we go to press the news that Mrs. Taylor Ringo tried to commit suicide this morning by swallowing carbolic acid, but only burned her mouth and face very badly. — Hazel Green Herald.

From an unknown source there comes a rumor that Pike county is to be divided, a new county to be created out of the eastern section of this county, which is now the largest in the State. Another rumor says that four counties will replace Pike. — Pikeville Kentuckian.

Whitesburg, Ky., May 30. — Telephone reports from Wise-co., Va., say United States Marshal Adington and possesmen have just made a raid along Guests and Pond rivers, near the Kentucky border, where they destroyed three alleged moonshine stills. No arrests were made.

The 100 barrel water tank used to supply the academy buildings with water collapsed Tuesday night with about 80 gallons of water in it and some of the staves were carried a distance of 100 feet or more. Aside from the wreck of the tank no other damage was done except that two or three maples on the campus were badly crippled. — Hazel Green Herald.

George Salyer, aged 30 years, and married, an A. C. & I. switchman, met a horrible death Monday morning, shortly before noon at the lower furnace, when he fell beneath a switch engine and was decapitated and his body terribly mangled.

George Salyer was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salyer and was born in Elliott-co., thirty years ago.

Revs. P. R. Hobbs, K. K. Spencer and Wm. H. Chambers held a religious meeting at the home of "Little Bill" Hurst, on the head of Stillwater Sunday. He was in a chair throughout the service, at the end of which he embraced religion and requested to be baptized by immersion. Being too weak to walk he was carried to Stillwater creek and there received the rite of baptism as prescribed in the ritual of the Baptist church. — H. G. Herald.

Whitesburg, Ky., May 30. — Several hundred men have been put to work on the construction of the upper Pound River extension of the Indian Creek and Pound River railroad, from Pound along and continuous to the Kentucky border line in Wise county, a distance of seven miles, to tap the rich timber fields of the Tidewater Lumber Company, which will establish a number of miles during the next few months.

Dennis Gallihue, aged 13 years, son of John Gallihue, while his family was preparing to go to church last Sunday near their home at Denton, Ky., just back of Ashland, shot and instantly killed his cousin, Alva Gallihue, aged 12 years, a son of J. R. Gallihue. The bullet from a gun supposed to be unloaded penetrated the victim's head and his death was instantaneous. The tragedy has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood for both families are highly esteemed.

Pike county is another that will witness a triangular fight for the county offices this year, candidates already being announced for nominations at the August primary. The county committees of the Republican, Progressive and Democratic parties have taken a determined stand to prevent bribery in elections in Pike-co., and each candidate who offers for a nomination on either party will be required to subscribe to an oath that he will not use any illegal methods to influence votes. Pike-co., is almost as large as some States and, it is said, a movement is on to form another county of the eastern half at the next Legislature.

Hazard. — A dozen shots fired in quick succession at noon Friday startled the citizens of Hazard. Many of those who are strangers thought at once of riot, but to the older ones it meant a fire. In less than five minutes the whole town was at the scene and every one, women and men, were engaged in saving the household goods, while others were running here and there for water to pour on the flames. In less than a half hour the home of Felix Felner, former Clerk of the Court, was burned to the ground. The two adjacent houses, belonging to R. B. Combs, Town Marshal, were slightly damaged. The loss is estimated at from $700 to $800. There was no insurance. Several men were overcome with heat. Lewis Stacy was for a while considered as past recovery, but was finally revived.
